Trinity Church is located in Copley Square in Boston's Back Bay. Copley Square is bounded by Dartmouth Street to the west, Boylston Street to the north, St. James Avenue to the south, and Clarendon Street to the east.

By T: On the orange line, get off at Back Bay station and walk two blocks north. On the green line, get off at the Copley Square station and walk one block east. The Route 39 bus also stops at Copley Square.

From Massachusetts Turnpike (Route 90): Exit at Copley Square. Turn left onto Dartmouth Street. Church is on right.

From Storrow Drive: Exit at Clarendon Street. Follow Clarendon three blocks.

Parking: Parishioner parking at the 500 Boylston Street Garage is available with a special discount sticker during services on Sundays. Parishioners who enter the garage anytime on Sunday between 6:00 a.m. and 9:00 p.m. (with a validation) will receive the first three hours of parking for $5.00. Be sure to pick up your coupons at the front desk or from an usher. Entrances to the garage are located on Clarendon Street and St. James Avenue.

There is also a supply of vouchered parking tickets for the parking garage at 100 Clarendon Street. These can be used for Trinity events on any day and cover up to three hours of parking for $7.00.
