

THE ARBORETUM FOR EDUCATORS 2019-2020

Saturday Mornings 9:00-11:30 AM

Monthly explorations in our diverse landscape, with practical applications for teaching!

Free of charge; pre-register at : <http://bit.ly/1JolyNe>

Visit www.arboretum.harvard.edu for more information or call 617-384-9032

September 28 and October 5: SPECIAL EVENT

Teaching Upper Elementary Standards Using Outdoor Spaces

A Museum of Science and Arnold Arboretum Collaboration

8:30am – 2pm

Register

November 2

- Seed Dispersal: Mechanisms of Flight
- Setting up investigations

December 7

- Tree Study part 1: Examining Tree Architecture
- Using a Science Journal

January 11

- Tree Study part 2: Inside and Outside Trees
- Model Making

February 1

- Tree Study part 3: Conifer Adaptations

March 7

- Search for Signs of Spring
- Identifying testable questions for science experiments

April 11

- Exploring Pond Ecosystems
- Using various forms of magnification

May 2

- What are Flowers? Form and function through dissections

June 6

- Pollinator Diversity
- Flower-Pollinator Interactions Simulation