Seeds and Seedlings

How does a seed make it on its own, released from its parent plant to start anew? Sargent Fellow Sarah Mathews will speak about nurture and nature in germination and a plant’s strategy of abandoning its progeny to the ground. Meet on the esker in the North Woods, opposite the upper section of the lilac collection, by Acc. #: 19192*H at 2:00pm on Thursday, May 30.
